

Scientific Research Center of the LEPL David Aghmashenebeli National Defence Academy of Georgia

Provision

Missions of the Scientific Research Center include:

- a) Promote the conduct of scientific researches focused on innovative knowledge, quality and outcome and the integration of scientific research and educational process;
- b) Find information about the operation principles and priorities of the donor organizations (foundations, companies, etc.); permanently find information about new grant competitions and consult the Academy personnel about the preparation and implementation of grant projects;
- c) Introduce the job specifics of the national and international science foundations and competition conditions to the Academy personnel and hold consultations and trainings related to project management;
- d) Organize consultations and trainings related to scientific management;
- e) Make business contacts with partner countries and foreign educational institutions to facilitate scientific researches and project implementation;
- f) Establish the relations with scientific circles of Georgia, organize the scientific-research conferences and symposia, ensure the involvement of the Junkers / students, find international grant projects and engage / coordinate the Junkers / students;
- g) Closely cooperate with academic faculty and the Quality Assurance Service to refine / improve the educational programs and syllabi;
- h) Facilitate the cooperation of the Academy in the field of scientific research and promote the integration of the Junkers and students in the international space;
- i) Find the international grant projects and engage and coordinate the Junkers / students;
- j) Support the scientific activities of the Junkers / students by means of close coordination with the primary educational institutions;
- k) Produce the proposals for research activities and submit them to the Academy leadership;
- l) Other activities defined by the legislation, the present provision and individual administrative legal acts of the Rector within the scope of competence.